PART II

THE CORPORATION

Establishment of Corporation

3. (1) A body corporate by the name of “Solid Waste and Public Cleansing Management Corporation” is established.

(2) The Corporation shall have perpetual succession and shall have a common seal.

(3) The Corporation may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(4) Subject to and for the purposes of this Act, the Corporation may, upon such terms as it deems fit—

(a) enter into contracts; and

(b) in respect of movable and immovable property and interest in movable and immovable property of every description—

(i) acquire, purchase and take such property and interest; and

(ii) hold, enjoy, convey, assign, surrender, yield up, charge, mortgage, demise, reassign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of or deal with, such property and interest vested in the Corporation.

Common seal

4. (1) The common seal of the Corporation shall bear a device as approved by the Corporation and the seal may from time to time be broken, changed, altered and made anew as the Corporation thinks fit.

(2) Until a seal is provided by the Corporation, a stamp bearing the words “Solid Waste and Public Cleansing Management Corporation” may be used and shall be deemed to be its common seal.

(3) The common seal of the Corporation shall be kept in the custody of the Chief Executive Officer or any officer of the Corporation authorized by the Corporation and shall be authenticated by either the Chairman or by such other members of the Corporation authorized by the Chairman in writing.

(4) All deeds, documents and other instruments purporting to be sealed with the common seal and authenticated in accordance with subsection (3) shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been validly executed.

(5) Any deed, document and other instrument which is not required to be under seal may in like manner be executed by a member of the Corporation or an officer or employee of the Corporation authorized by the Corporation in that behalf.

(6) The common seal of the Corporation shall be officially and judicially noticed.

Membership of Corporation

5. The Corporation shall consist of the following members who shall be appointed by the Minister:

- (g) not more than three other members who shall have relevant knowledge and experience.

Statutory declaration by members of Corporation

6. (1) No person shall be appointed as the Chairman or a member of the Corporation under paragraph 5(g) unless before such appointment the person makes a statutory declaration as to whether he has any interest, financial or otherwise, in any undertaking involving solid waste management services and public cleansing management services.

(2) If a member of the Corporation acquires any interest, financial or otherwise, in any undertaking involving solid waste management services and public cleansing management services he shall, within thirty days after such acquisition, give notice in writing to the Minister specifying the interest acquired, and the Minister may, after taking the matter into consideration, if he thinks fit, declare that the member has vacated his office.

Tenure of office

7. (1) The Chairman and members of the Corporation appointed under paragraph 5(g) shall, unless he sooner resigns or vacates his office or his appointment is sooner revoked, hold office for a term not exceeding two years and shall be eligible for reappointment upon the expiry of his term of office, but shall not be appointed for more than three consecutive terms.

(2) This section shall not apply to the Chief Executive Officer.

Allowances of members of Corporation

8. The Chairman and members of the Corporation, other than the Chief Executive Officer, shall be paid such allowances and other expenses at such rates as the Minister may determine.

Revocation of appointment and resignation

9. (1) The Minister may at any time revoke the appointment of any member of the Corporation, other than the members appointed under paragraphs 5(b) to (f), without assigning any reason for the revocation.

(2) A member of the Corporation, other than the Chief Executive Officer, may at any time resign from his appointment by giving a written notice to the Minister.

Vacation of office

10. The office of a member of the Corporation, other than the the members appointed under paragraphs 5(b) to (f), shall be vacated—

(a) if he dies;

- (b) if there has been proved against him, or he has been convicted on, a charge in respect of—
 - (i) an offence involving fraud, dishonesty or moral turpitude;
 - (ii) an offence under any law relating to corruption; or
 - (iii) any other offence punishable with imprisonment (in itself only or in addition to or in lieu of a fine) for more than two years;
- (c) if his conduct, whether in connection with his duties as a member of the Corporation or otherwise, has been such as to bring discredit on the Corporation;
- (d) if he becomes a bankrupt;
- (e) if he is of unsound mind or otherwise incapable of discharging his duties;
- (f) in the case of the Chairman, if he absents himself from three consecutive meetings of the Corporation without leave of the Minister;
- (g) in the case of a member of the Corporation other than the Chairman, if he absents himself from three consecutive meetings of the Corporation without leave in writing of the Chairman;
- (h) if his appointment is revoked by the Minister; or
- (i) if his resignation is accepted by the Minister.

Committees

11. (1) The Corporation may establish any committee as it considers necessary or expedient to assist it in the performance of its functions.

(2) The Corporation may elect any of its members to be the chairman of a committee.

(3) The Corporation may appoint any person to be a member of a committee.

(4) A member of a committee shall hold office for such term as may be specified in his letter of appointment and is eligible for reappointment.

(5) The Corporation may revoke the appointment of any member of a committee without assigning any reason for the revocation.

(6) A member of a committee may, at any time, resign by giving a notice in writing to the chairman of the committee.

(7) The Corporation may, at any time, discontinue or alter the constitution of a committee.

(8) A committee may regulate its own procedure.

(9) A committee shall be subject to, and act in accordance with, any direction given to it by the Corporation.

(10) The meetings of a committee shall be held at such times and places as the chairman of the committee may determine.

(11) A committee shall cause—

(a) minutes of all its meetings to be maintained and kept in a proper form; and

(b) copies of the minutes of all its meetings to be submitted to the Corporation as soon as may be practicable.

(12) A committee may invite any person to attend any of its meetings for the purpose of advising it on any matter under discussion but that person shall not be entitled to vote at the meeting.

(13) The members of a committee and any person invited under subsection (12) shall be paid such allowances and other expenses as the Corporation may determine.

Disclosure of interest

12. (1) A member of the Corporation or any committee who has or acquires a direct or indirect interest by himself, through a member of his family or his associate in relation to any matter under discussion by the Corporation or committee, as the case may be, shall disclose to the Corporation or committee, as the case may be, the fact of his interest and the nature of that interest.

(2) A disclosure under subsection (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the Corporation or committee, as the case may be, in which the matter is discussed and, after the disclosure—

- (a) the member shall not be present or take part in any discussion or decision of the Corporation or committee, as the case may be, about the matter; and
- (b) the member shall be disregarded for the purpose of constituting a quorum of the Corporation or committee, as the case may be,

when the matter is discussed or decided upon.
